

DEADLINE: JULY 1, 2020

Call for WORKSHOPS: HNA Conference 2021

Amsterdam and The Hague, Netherlands

HNA CONFERENCE 2021
Amsterdam and The Hague
2-5 June 2021

In preparation of the HNA conference 2-5 June 2021, 2021, organized by the University of Amsterdam and the RKD – Netherlands Institute for Art History, the program committee is soliciting proposals for workshops. Each workshop will be 90 minutes. Priority will be given to hands-on workshops and onsite workshops at various locations (museums, historic homes, public sites) in Amsterdam on Thursday and Saturday and The Hague on Friday. Please indicate the exact place where you would like to hold the workshop.

Applicants must be HNA members and are allowed to submit multiple proposals, but may not chair more than one session. Chairs of workshops may, however, present a paper in another session.

Please send proposals of max. 500 words, explaining the state of the art and stating clearly the ambitions of the session, along with a single-paged curriculum vitae, to hna2021-fgw@uva.nl.

Deadline: 1 July 2020. Applicants will be notified by the program committee no later than 1 August 2020.

Program committee:

Stijn Bussels, Leiden University (chair)
Edwin Buijsen, Mauritshuis
Suzanne Laemers, RKD – Netherlands Institute for Art History
Judith Noorman, University of Amsterdam
Gabri van Tussenbroek, University of Amsterdam / City of Amsterdam
Abbie Vandivere, Mauritshuis and University of Amsterdam