

The University of Bonn is an international research university that conducts research and teaching into a broad range of subjects. With a 200-year history, some 35,000 students, more than 6,000 employees and an outstanding reputation in Germany and abroad, the University of Bonn is one of the leading universities in Germany and has achieved the status of a University of Excellence.

The Department of Art History is seeking to appoint a fixed-term

Tenured Lecturer (fixed-term civil service status) (pay grade A 13, full-time)

The appointment is at the professorship of Prof. Dr. Birgit Ulrike Münch for a period of three years (April 1, 2023 to March 31, 2026) with the possibility of extension by a further three years.

The position comes with teaching obligations of 4 course units per week.

Your tasks:

- Support the research and teaching performed by the professorship primarily in the field of Northern Art (Netherlands, Germany, France, England)
- Teaching 4 course units per week
- Supporting the work of the professorship (project work and the acquisition of third-party funding)
- Making a contribution to the work of the Transdisciplinary Research Areas at the University of Bonn
- Administrative responsibilities

Your profile:

- A doctorate in Art History or a master's degree (grade: Very Good) preferably with a specialism in the early modern period
- Experience in working in interdisciplinary research alliances and in the submission of applications for third-party funding is desirable
- An excellent command of English
- An interest in at least one of the following specialisms is desirable: the links between art history and the medical humanities; the social history of art; theories of historical cultural studies; political iconography; global art history

We offer:

- A varied and challenging position with one of the largest employers in the region
- The opportunity to complete a doctorate or Habilitation
- An occupational pension (VBL)
- Participation in the University Sports program
- Excellent access by public and private transport and the opportunity to purchase a GKT Large Employer Ticket for the VRS public transport network or take advantage of low-cost parking facilities
- Remuneration in accordance with pay grade A 13 of the State Civil Servant Pay Scheme (LBesO)

The University of Bonn is committed to diversity and equal opportunity. It is certified as a family-friendly university. The University of Bonn seeks to increase the proportion of women in areas in which they are underrepresented and focus on promoting their career development. Accordingly, the University of Bonn expressly encourages qualified women to apply. Applications will be handled in accordance with the NRW State Gender Equality Act. Applications are particularly welcome from suitably-qualified candidates with a certified severe disability or those of equal status.

If you are interested in this position, please send your application as a single PDF file (certificates, index of publications, a description of the focus of current and future research), stating the reference number 79/22/3.201, by email to mtempleton@uni-bonn.de by 12/07/2022. The PDF should be less than 10 MB in size.

Please contact Prof. Dr. Birgit Ulrike Münch (email: bmuench@uni-bonn.de) for further information.